by adding the following new sections immediately preceding the last section and by renumbering the subsequent section accordingly:

SECTION _____. Tennessee Code Annotated, Title 49, Chapter 4, is amended by adding the following as a new part:

§ 49-4-901.

(a) Net proceeds of lottery games conducted by the state shall be used exclusively for the purposes set out in Article XI, Section 5 of the Constitution of Tennessee and the provisions of this act. Such net proceeds shall be used to supplement, not supplant, existing resources for educational purposes, projects and programs.

(b) It is the intent of the general assembly that if there exist net proceeds of lottery games conducted by the state in excess of those allocated to provide financial assistance to citizens of this state to enable such citizens to attend postsecondary educational institutions located in Tennessee, then such excess net proceeds shall be allocated first to early learning programs.

(c) It is further the intent of the general assembly that the scholarship and grant programs established under this part shall not create an entitlement to financial assistance to enable attendance at a postsecondary institution for any student. In the event net proceeds from lottery revenues are insufficient to fund fully the scholarships and grants created by this part, then the Tennessee student assistance corporation (hereinafter referred to as "TSAC") is authorized to review and reduce the amounts to be awarded for such scholarships and grants pro rata.

(a) The scholarship and grant programs established by this part shall be administered by TSAC, which shall be responsible for determination of eligibility of students and for the distribution of funds appropriated by the general assembly for scholarships and grants awarded under the program.

(b) The Tennessee higher education commission (hereinafter referred to as "THEC") shall provide assistance to the general assembly and to TSAC by researching and analyzing data concerning the scholarship and grant programs created under this part, including, but not limited to, student success and scholarship retention. THEC shall report its findings annually to the education committee of the senate and the education committee of the house of representatives before the second Tuesday in January.

(c) Postsecondary educational institutions that enroll students receiving scholarships or grants under this part shall provide all information required by TSAC and THEC that is necessary for administering, reviewing, and evaluating such programs. TSAC and THEC may choose to collect data from higher education institutions or through the University of Tennessee system, board of regents, or the Tennessee Independent Colleges and Universities Association. TSAC and THEC shall maintain confidentiality of individual student records in accordance with the Family Educational Right to Privacy Act.

TSAC shall promulgate rules and regulations to provide for repayment or partial repayment of a scholarship or grant awarded to a student who subsequently withdraws from courses or from the postsecondary institution. No repayment shall be required if a full-time student withdraws from a course and such withdrawal does not reduce the student's course load below twelve (12) semester hours. All students shall be notified of the consequences of withdrawing from courses or from the institution, when notified of the award of a scholarship or grant.

SECTION ____.

(a) Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 49-6-101, is amended by deleting present subsection (f) and substituting the following:

(f)

(1) Through a system of competitive grants and technical assistance provided as funding is available, the department of education may establish, administer and monitor programs of community-based early childhood education and pre-kindergarten programs to serve at least five thousand (5,000) children. Such programs shall be designed to address comprehensively the educational needs, including cognitive, physical, social and emotional, of children who are not otherwise eligible for similar programs or who do not have access to such programs. (2) To the extent that financing of education projects can be accomplished less expensively through the pooling of needs and the use of less costly borrowing techniques, local governments would be better able to provide education projects, and other essential services for the benefit of its citizens and taxpayers.

(b)

(1) It is accordingly in furtherance of the interests and welfare of all Tennesseans that the Tennessee local development authority shall be empowered and is hereby authorized to issue its revenue bonds and to make the proceeds available for loans to local government units for capital projects for K-12 educational purposes.

(2) It is intended that the Tennessee local development authority be vested with all powers necessary to accomplish these purposes.

§ 4-31-1003.

As used in this part, unless the context otherwise requires:

(1) "Construction" means the building, reconstruction, creation, replacement, extension, repairing, betterment, improvement, alteration, equipment, extension or acquisition, including, but not limited to, the acquisition of land and of rights in land, the engineering, architectural designs, plans, working drawings, specifications, procedures and other action necessary in the construction of such capital projects, and the inspection and supervision of such capital projects.

(2) "Education project" means a capital outlay project for kindergarten through grade twelve (K-12) educational facilities.

(3) "Local education agency" or "LEA" has the same meaning as defined in § 49-3-302.

§ 4-31-1004.

(a) In addition to the powers otherwise granted by law, the authority has the power and is authorized to make loans to any local government unit to finance the construction of education projects pursuant to a loan agreement between the local government unit and the authority. Such loans shall be made from the proceeds of bonds or notes issued by the authority pursuant to this chapter for the purpose of making such loans, provided that the bonds and notes of the authority that may be outstanding at any time for such purpose shall not exceed seventy-five million dollars ($75,000,000). Such bonds or notes may be payable from or secured by the general shortfall reserve subaccount created by § 4-51-111 as the authority may provide in the indentures or resolutions authorizing and securing the authority's bonds and notes, which indentures and resolutions may include covenants with the holders of the bonds and notes with respect to the use, including limitations on such use, of such subaccount.

(d) This section shall take effect on July 1, 2004, the public welfare requiring it.

SECTION __.

The general assembly finds and declares that:

(1) The citizens of Tennessee in November 2002 approved an amendment to the Constitution of Tennessee to permit a state lottery, if the net proceeds of such lottery are used to provide financial assistance to Tennesseans to enable them to attend postsecondary institutions in this state, with excess proceeds used for capital outlay projects for K-12 educational facilities and early learning and after school programs;

(2) The availability of such financial assistance for postsecondary education should be structured to inspire students from a very early age to aspire to academic excellence in order to attend institutions of higher education;

(3) Such financial assistance should afford Tennesseans without the means the opportunity to attend institutions of higher education;

(4) Such financial assistance should be provided in a manner that is fair and equitable and assists the greatest number of Tennesseans in attending postsecondary institutions;

(5) Such financial assistance should be used to ensure that the number of Tennesseans holding associate and baccalaureate degrees increases dramatically;

(6) The ultimate goal of such financial assistance should be to improve quality of life for all Tennesseans and to enhance the desirability of Tennessee as a place without equal in which to live and work; and

(7) The decision as to how to provide such financial assistance should not be made in haste or without thorough deliberation, but students who will graduate from high school in 2003 and 2004 deserve an opportunity to obtain assistance with the costs of higher education from net lottery proceeds.

SECTION ____.

(a) There is hereby created a special joint committee to study the manner in which financial assistance for Tennesseans to attend postsecondary institutions located in Tennessee shall be provided from net lottery proceeds of the state lottery established pursuant to Article XI, Section 5 of the Constitution of Tennessee.

(b) The committee shall consist of six (6) members of the house of representatives and six (6) members of the senate. The chairs of the education committees of the house of representatives and the senate and the chair of the higher education subcommittee of the education committee of the house of representatives shall serve on the committee. The speaker of the house shall appoint the remaining members of the committee from the house of representatives. The speaker of the senate shall appoint the remaining members of the committee from the senate.

(c) All appropriate state agencies shall provide assistance to the special joint committee.

(d) The special joint committee shall be convened by the member with the most years of continuous service in the general assembly; and at its first meeting, the committee shall elect a chair, vice-chair, and such other officers as the committee deems necessary.
